TWENTY-FIVE MEN DROWN

Italians Laboring in a Tunnel Pierce a Wall, Resulting in a Torrent of Water and Mud From Under Earth Deluging Them.

Berne, Switzerland, July 24.—There was a frightful accident in Loetschberg tunnel, in the Bernese Alps, which resulted in the death of twenty-five workmen.

The men were drilling inside a tunnel. Without warning the tools pierced the wall that separated them from a subterranean river or lake, the existence of which was not known. The wall gave way with a crash and a torrent of water and mud rushed into the tunnel and filled it. All the workmen were drowned. They were Italians.

House Dynamited, Troops Asked.

Natalbany, La., July 24.—Following the dynamiting of an Italian's home here Friday and other disorders, Sheriff Saal sent a message to Governor Sanders asking for troops. No one was injured in the explosion. Italians by the hundreds have been leaving this section.

OPERA HOUSE RENOVATED.

The interior of the Bryan opera house is receiving the attention of a carpenter this week to the end of securing a good appearance for the opening in September. The chairs are being gone over and revarnished and other matters of renovation attended to which will add to the comfort of patrons and the neat appearance of the house.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Union bakers in St. Paul have obtained an increase of $1 a week in their wages.

A State Federation of Labor for Louisiana was recently organized at Shreveport.

The legislature of Porto Rico has passed an act to regulate the hours of railroad employes with sixteen hours' limit.

Twenty per cent of the population of Canada earns its living in connection with the country's carrying trade. Railroad employes alone number 124,000.

The mayor of Knoxville, Tenn., recently appointed three representatives of organized labor to assist in drafting the new city charter, and through their efforts it is expected that the initiative and referendum clause will be inserted.

It is expected that the Australian commonwealth old age pension scheme will cost $9,000,000 yearly. All indigent persons over 65 years of age who have resided in the commonwealth for twenty years, will be entitled to a pension of $2.40 a week.

The Indianapolis labor organizations have recently leased a farm of thirty acres west of the city, which they intend to improve and use for picnics and outings. A park committee has been formed, with a view of raising funds for the purchase of the beautiful natural park.

BANDIT FOILED.

Timely Blow From Coal Scoop Thwarts Robber.

Appleton, Wis., July 24.—A bold deed was attempted near here.

A nifty robber tried to hold up a Ashland and St. Paul northbound train on the Chicago Northwestern railroad. The train had just passed the junction when a masked man climbed over the tender into the cab of the engine from the platform of the blind baggage, where he had been hiding. Revolver in hand, he commanded Lewis Vandall, driver of the locomotive to stop the train, uncouple his engine and run up the track a short distance.

Vandall, covered as he was by the man's revolver, was about to comply when Gustave Pahl, his fireman, hit the highwayman a heavy blow with his coal scoop, knocking the revolver from his hand. Pahl was swinging the scoop for another blow when the man jumped from the door way of the cab while the train was running 20 miles an hour.

It is the theory of several trainmen that there was a large shipment of gold on the train from Chicago to St. Paul and that it was this treasure the man was after.

LOSES HIS MONEY.

Writes Three Letters and Suicides Is the Next and Last Step.

Chicago, July 24.—While despondent on account of financial reverses W. A. Williams shot and killed himself in a saloon next door to the place where he had lost his money. In his pockets were found three letters, one addressed to his brother, Rev. A. Williams, a priest living at South Haven, Mich., and one to his mother, Mrs. Fannie Williams of Detroit, and another to Mrs. P. J. Shafer, Chicago, a cousin and the wife of his former partner in business. Williams came to Chicago three months ago from Ohio, after he had sold a forty acre farm. He went into the saloon business with Shafer at 10 Quincy street, investing $400, all the money he had of a small fortune, most of which he had lost by bad investments.

The saloon was closed because of financial troubles. Shafer took much of the stock and furnishing and left the place after he had divided the assets with Williams. The latter received $4. When this was spent on Tuesday, Williams sold his watch for $2. He had one cent when he committed suicide.

Williams was born at Kalamazoo, Mich. He went to a small town near Cleveland about fifteen years ago and bought a farm. He raised thoroughbred horses and raced them. Three years ago his wife died. Reverses followed and he sold his farm four months ago.

Bomb No. 18 Explodes.

Chicago, July 24.—Bomb No. 18 in the gamblers' vendetta series was exploded in the rear of J. J. Corbett's saloon, 26 State street. The bomb was placed under the saloon in the rear of the basement which is used as a store room. Planks two inches thick were torn from the walls and several hundred dollars' worth of bottle goods that had been stored in the basement was broken.

The explosion caused excitement among the guests of the Strauss hotel, above the saloon. The bomb had been placed on top of a jug and when it exploded pieces were blown into the walls of the building.

Two rooms of the hotel are said to have been used for a poker game and the bomb evidently was directed toward the keeper's of the gambling house, as Corbett is not interested in the hotel. The explosion was the third similar attempt that had been made against the gamblers in a month. The police never have been able to find the persons responsible for the outrage.

Rioting Follows Strike.

Bombay, India, July 24.—Twenty thousand mill hands who went on strike Thursday started a riot Friday morning, and a detachment of British Infantry was called out to put down the disorder. It was found necessary to fire and as a result one native was killed and six wounded. Several members of the European and native police sustained injuries. The rioters were quelled and dispersed.

TEXAS STATE BANKS.

Report States They Are in a Splendid Condition.

Austin, July 24.—The department of state banking has made public a condensed statement of the financial condition of 324 state banks and trust companies at the close of business June 30. The statement shows these institutions in fine condition, the total reserve being 48 1-2 per cent of demand deposits in cash and other banks, while the law only requires 25 per cent cash and 18 per cent of the demand deposits in actual cash in the banks.

Individual deposits aggregate $16,607,545, which is a slight decrease from the last statement, due due to the recent panic.

Vital Statistics.

Austin, July 24.—The state health department has issued the vital statistics bulletin for June, which shows 1,728 deaths and 4,538 births. This is an increase in births and increase of 100 in deaths. The statement also shows 235 deaths from typhoid fever within five months.

MEXICAN RATE INCREASE.

Freight Charges Are a Decided Determent to Texas Cities.

Fort Worth, July 24.—Fort Worth packing houses are joining in the campaign to prevent all Mexican railroads from discriminating against Fort Worth.

Word was received from Traffic Manager Miller of Swift & Co. from Mexico that he was protesting vigorously before the government officials against the heavy freight rate increase which has just been declared, not only against Fort Worth, but all Texas cities. Mexican lines have raised the rate from Fort Worth 21 cents per 100 pounds. Packing houses believe a conspiracy exists against them, as no other packing house center is affected. Fort Worth sends $50,000 worth of meat to Mexico monthly. With the interstate rate increase Aug. 10, Texas shippers say the situation is hardly bearable. A protest will be laid before both governments.

Dodged Without Avail.

Chicago, July 24.—Jeremiah Kinnane, charged with stealing $2,000 worth of jewelry from C. D. Peacock & Co., was captured by detectives in Twelfth street after a dozen shots had been fired at him.

Kinnane tried to escape by dodging behind posts of the South Side elevated railroad and bullets fired by the detectives whizzed past windows of cars above. Stick pins, rings and other jewelry identified by the Peacock firm were found in his pockets.

The detectives say that Kinnane was formerly assistant paying teller in a bank at Detroit, Mich., and that he embezzled $1,375, for which he served three years in the Jackson, Mich., prison.

Constable Conger Dies.

Waxahachie, Tex., July 24.—Constable Tom Conger who was murderously assaulted by Nelson Golden, a negro, on the morning of June 6, died Friday morning at his home at Red Oak. Conger was shot twice while attempting the arrest of Golden, one shot passing through his body. He made fair progress toward recovery for a while, but a few days ago his condition changed for the worse. He suffering for the last two or three days was intense.

Will Be Probed.

New York, July 24.—Through the arrest of David Shelland, the policeman accused of killing Barbara Reig in Irving park, it is believed a gigantic police scandal will be developed. It is charged fellow officers protected Shelland and refused to take Bertillon measurements and police photograph and trying to force his release. Commissioner Bingham decided to probe the whole affair. It is believed a conspiracy among policemen to protect each other will be uncovered.

Hitchcock Coming South.

Chicago, July 24.—Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee says he expects to visit Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Missouri and probably Texas to hold conferences with party leaders in those states. He will attend the Taft ratification ceremonies at Cincinnati and then go to New York to get headquarters there in running order.

Assuming Tangible Form.

Fort Worth, July 24.—Efforts of Fort Worth and other Texas heirs of the $90,000,000 Springer estate to obtain possession are rapidly assuming tangible form. Mrs. W. F. Rockwall of this city left for Chicago, where she will commence investigation of the big Pennsylvania and Delaware estate, part of which she claims. She says she is receiving assuring reports.

Stands Chance to Recover.

Comanche, Tex., July 24.—The condition of J. W. Reese, who was shot in a difficulty Thursday with E. C. Gaines, both being legislative candidates, was reported at noon Friday as improved. It was stated by his physicians that if complications did not set in Mr. Reese was likely to recover.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS, DALLAS, TEXAS.

Twenty-Third Annual Entertainment, October 17th to November 1st, 1908.

Dallas, Tex., July 21.—If expenditure of money is taken into consideration the coming meet of the State Fair of Texas this fall, October 17 to November 1, next, will eclipse all preceding fairs in new buildings, entertaining features and educative exhibits. The earnings of the fair of 1907, amounting to $105,000, are being expended by the officials of the association in building fitting homes for the various industries of the State, in exhibitions and premiums that will serve to develop these industries, and in clean and up-to-date entertaining for the patrons of the fair. Of the sum mentioned the directors appropriated $30,000 for a fine arts' and ladies' textile building; $25,000 for the completion of the agricultural and manufacturers' building and $40,000 for a new steel grandstand. The completion of the toilet and sewerage system, begun last year, will necessitate $10,000, making a total of $105,000 for improvements.

The above improvements are not haphazard. They are constructed for the years to come, and, when completed, will make the Texas State Fair grounds the greatest of the kind on the North American continent. The grounds now absolutely swarm with workmen, all busy with their respective duties, and each striving to outdo the other in getting these new structures completed by October 1, seventeen days before the gates swing inward on the twenty-third annual meet.

Letters have been received from the various sections of the State asking for space in agricultural hall for the display of the products of the soil, and already over half of the space in this building is taken for this purpose.

E. J. Kiest, president of the Fair Association, is desirous that every agricultural community in Texas be represented during the coming fair, as it is the purpose of the institution to upbuild the State by exhibiting to the thousands of visitors from this and other States the products of the various sections of the State. President Kiest said: "The demand for space for both exhibits and privileges is far greater than ever before in the history of the fair. Every foot of space in our exposition building and in our implement and vehicle department is taken. We will have a greater livestock display than last year. Our offerings in every department are increased and several new departments added to the fair. In a word this great Texas institution, we believe, will give the people more amusement, intellectual entertainment, more genuine sport and more of thorough diverse education, than was ever heard of before at any State Fair anywhere."

Every department of the fair is receiving its due proportion of increased facilities for the accommodation of its patrons, and the premiums will be enlarged to meet the worthy demand of every class of exhibits.

For further informations, address State Fair of Texas, Sydney Smith, Secretary.

UNLESS WE WAKE UP.

In fifty years we shall have whole states as bare as China. The Appalachians will be stripped to bed rock. The Rockies will send down vast floods, which can not be controlled. The Canadian forests north of the great lakes will be bare. The Yazoo delta will be ripped apart, because no levee will be able to stand the floods of those days. We shall be living in crowded concrete houses, and at double the rent we now pay. We shall make vehicles of steel, use no wood on our farms. We shall pay ten cents for a newspaper, fifty cents for a magazine, as much for a lead pencil. Cotton will be immensely higher. Beef will be the privilege of the few. Clothing will cost twice what it costs today. Like Chinamen, our children will rake the soil for fuel or forage or food. We shall shiver in a cold, and burn in a heat, never before felt in this temperate zone, meant by God as a comfortable growing place for splendid human beings—unless we wake up.—Emerson Hough in Everybody's.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. Westminster League at 7:45 p. m. Rev. Hamilton will preach at both services. The public cordially invited to a tend.

TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS.

On Sunday next a list of city property owners delinquent in their taxes will be published and those owing taxes and being desirous of saving additional cost and having their name omitted from the list should see me and settle at once.

FRANK CLARKE,
City Secretary.

SIX YEARS IN JAIL.

Convicted Three Times for Murder—Sentence Does Little Good.

Kansas City, Mo., July 24.—John M. Speyer today completed six consecutive years of imprisonment in the Jackson county jail and he is believed to be the oldest jail prisoner in the West, if not in the entire country. He has been convicted three times of the murder of his son and twice has been sentenced to death. An appeal each time has served to stay the execution of the verdict and has likewise prevented him from being transferred to the state penitentiary. He is now awaiting a fourth trial in his case and it probably will be well along his seventh year in jail before his case is finally disposed of.

Speyer is a changed man since his long imprisonment. He has seen several changes in the jail administration during his term of six years and has witnessed the imprisonment and release of hundreds of prisoners. This has led to a philosophical bent of mind and his introspective cogitations have led him to hang in his cell the motto, "Smile, damn you, smile."

Speyer does not think much of the jail as a place for reforming criminals. On this subject he says, "The men who come here are mostly graduates in crime. They cannot be reformed. I have seen many men in here, who went to the penitentiary when I first came, who have since served their sentences, have come back and have been taken away to begin a second sentence. The first jail sentence may do a young man some good, I think. That is, if he is set free in a few hours, before he becomes acquainted with the other criminals and before the horror wears off. But after a man has spent a week in a jail the jail is without opportunity for doing him any good. He becomes hardened."

"I will tell you why this jail is always full. It is not, as the preachers come in and tell us, because of men being hungry and having to steal and it is not because of whiskey. It is cocaine and morphine and other drugs that keep the jails full. Nineteenth of the inmates of jails are drug fiends. The jailers use every precaution to keep the stuff out of the jail, but it is smuggled in in loaves of bread, in pies and bananas. And a man who is a drug fiend is an incurable criminal. At any time he is without his drug he will steal, murder or commit any crime to get the price of the stuff."

TO FIGHT HIGHER RATES.

Business Men Meet in Conference—Southern Shippers Will Submit.

Chicago, Ill., July 24.—That the business men of the country do not intend to submit to an increase in freight rates without a fight was made evident today when a number of representatives of the manufacturing and commercial interests of the nation met in this city to confer in regard to the recent action of the Southwestern Freight Association in filing with the Interstate Commerce Commission a new freight rate tariff calling for a general advance in joint freight rates for Texas of approximately eight per cent.

The parties to the conference were the members of the committee of eighteen appointed at the May conference of manufacturers and shippers. The organization represented by the committee include the National Hardwood Lumber Association, National League of Commission Merchants, National Industrial Trade League, Illinois Manufacturers' Association, American Shippers' Association, Iowa State Manufacturers' Association, National Association of Manufacturers, National Association of Agricultural Implements and Vehicle Manufacturers, National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association, and the Manufacturers' Association of New York.

While the organizations named and a number of additional ones are assembling forces to oppose any increase in rates, the fact has developed that the manufacturing and commercial interests do not all agree on the inadvisability of the proposed increase. This has complicated the situation and is expected to prove of advantage to the railroads in the contest. The metal and allied industries, it is understood, do not object to the contemplated increase in the freight rates. Many shippers in the South, it is also understood, will submit to the proposed increase of rates by the Southern roads without much opposition, provided there is no discrimination in the new rates.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL.

Big Crowd at Depot—Makes Short Talk—Enthusiastically Cheered.

The announcement that Governor Campbell would be on the south-bound Central train at 3:40 yesterday afternoon caused a crowd variously estimated at 1000 to 1500 to assemble at the depot. There they stood unprotected from the sun in the heat of mid-afternoon waiting to see the chief executive of Texas and hear what he might say in regard to the criticisms of which he is the object.

When the train stopped, it was supposed that the governor would be on the rear platform and there was a rush in that direction. When he did not appear at the expected place, there was some confusion and exclamations of disappointment. But the word was passed along that he was in one of the cars ahead, and when he appeared, Hon. W. C. Davis and other friends were there to greet him. Many pressed forward to shake hands with him and the governor descended from the steps and was soon encircled by a number eager to greet him. Cries of "Speech! speech!" were raised by those unable to get near him, in response to which he stood on the steps of the chair car and talked for a few minutes.

Governor Campbell began with an expression of his grateful appreciation of the outpouring of the people to greet him. He regretted that he had not time to make a speech, for it would give him great pleasure to discuss fully the issues now foremost in the thoughts of the people of Texas. He asked the people to consider the character of the opposition, or rather the kind of men who are leading the opposition. He has been assailed by the attorneys, the agents, and the organs of special interests and lawless corporations because he has kept the pledges and the promises made to the people in the Democratic platform. (Applause.) Those who are opposed to this may keep on fighting him, for he intends to keep faith with the people. He was glad to see the people taking interest in public affairs. When the people are awake to their own interests, the State is in no danger.

The governor began a brief statement of figures to show that the burden of taxation had in a great measure been shifted from the shoulders of the people to the corporations. But the train started and moved out with increasing speed, while the smiling governor waved his hat and bowed in response to the deafening cheers of the people.

LIQUOR LICENSES GRANTED.

Three of the eighteen pending applications for licenses to engage in the sale of malt and spirituous liquors in Brazos county for the ensuing year were heard yesterday in county court and the permits accordingly issued. They were: Koserak & Merka liquor, Smetana; Frank Salvato, malt. Steel-Store; V. J. Dobrovoleney, liquor, Bryan. The remaining fifteen applications will be heard at intervals between now and August 1.

CAMPAIGN'S CLOSING SPEECHES.

Addresses at the court house, of a stipulated duration of fifteen minutes each by such of the State, county and precinct candidates who felt so disposed, closed the campaign last night. The district court room was well filled by an audience whose enthusiasm at times burst forth in echo-stirring applause, but throughout the utmost good humor prevailed. Among the audience were many ladies, who seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the gentlemen. With few exceptions all the candidates addressed a few words to the assemblage.

ELECTION BULLETINS

Will Be Posted Saturday Night and Published Sunday Morning.

The Eagle has made arrangements, as near perfect as practicable, to secure reports from every voting box in Brazos county Saturday night as soon as the votes are counted. These reports will include the vote for each candidate from governor to constable; also the vote on the prohibition submission and local option propositions. The Eagle hopes to be able to present to its readers Sunday morning the official returns of the primary election in Brazos county, together with such news of the State election as shall be received up to the time of going to press.

The Eagle realizes that there is a conviction that there are involved in the election today some of the most important issues ever submitted to the people of Texas, and that the desire to know the result will be intense. To gratify this laudable desire bulletins giving the news as it comes in Saturday night will be posted in front of the Eagle office and the public is invited to get the reports hot from the wires. Come and join in the shouting if the election goes to suit you, or take your medicine and have it over as soon as possible if you lose.

The board of county commissioners was in session yesterday examining the rolls of the county tax assessor for the current year. No other business was taken up.
